

A Survey of the Nepali People

As Nepal transitions to a federal governance structure, the Foundation plans a series of public opinion surveys documenting views of the Nepali people. The surveys will provide data for policymakers and leaders in government, the development community, civil society organizations, and the broader Nepali public. Stay tuned for more.

