

1. What sector are you coming from?

3. In a few words, what are the biggest barriers to applying a gender lens to philanthropy?

Patriarchal mindset

Awareness, lack of social momentum

Societal norms/barriers to change

Lack of flexible funding

Resource priorities Lack of political will

lack of political will

Lack of data

Identification of opportunities

Lack of political will,

3. In a few words, what are the biggest barriers to applying a gender lens to philanthropy?

Too hard basket lack of awareness, lack of political will

Other priorities

Lack of awareness, not a priority

Lack of information on HOW to apply

Lack of awareness

Political push back

Political appetite

Misunderstanding about what it means

3. In a few words, what are the biggest barriers to applying a gender lens to philanthropy?

Measurement of progress unrealistic expectations

Awareness

lack of understanding from funders/grant makers

Patriarchal mindset

Status quo thinking of entrenched leaders

lack of political will

failure to consider whole value chain clearly understanding why it is necessary and the actually how to do

3. In a few words, what are the biggest barriers to applying a gender lens to philanthropy?

Women don't have as much money as men lack of social awareness and will

Bias in finance systems

Lack of data, it is hard to collect accurate information in the field

Misunderstanding

Priorities are elsewhere

how to start GLI in Philanthropy

awareness

grant making parameters

3. In a few words, what are the biggest barriers to applying a gender lens to philanthropy?

Don't know how to do it thoroughly and wffectively

Lack of understanding

Support and awareness lack of awareness, power balance,

Difficulty in breaking down current societal norms or patriarchy (financial power, care and domestic responsibilities, etc)

