WHO WE ARE

• Informed by more than six decades of experience and deep local expertise, we are addressing Asia’s most critical issues—rapid urbanization, rising inequality, pervasive subnational conflicts, violence against women, and a closing space for civil society.

• We are nonpartisan and bring together diverse perspectives to tackle multi-dimensional challenges that move across borders.

• We create global impact through cost-effective grant-making and direct program operations through our network of offices in 18 Asian countries.

• With a long view of Asia’s development needs, we emphasize a political economy approach, putting local communities at the center.

• We partner with a diverse group of donors including bilateral and multilateral development agencies, foundations, corporations, and individuals. In 2020, we provided $78.6 million in direct program support and distributed textbooks and other educational materials valued at $5 million.
